THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V. RAMULU

WRIT PETITION NO.6117 of 1999

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed seeking compassionate appointment by the son of an employee, Mr. Ch. Sailoo, who worked in the first respondent-organisation and died in harness.

As seen from the counter-affidavit filed by the first respondent, it is stated that though there is no scheme for compassionate appointment in their organisation, in the meeting held on 17-06-1998, the Board of Directors of their organisation decided to consider the case of the petitioner, however, the same was deferred due to the existing financial position of the organisation. It is further stated that thereafter, in the meeting held on 15-05-1998, it was decided to implement the orders issued by the Government in this regard in G.O.Ms.No.59 (GAD (Service-A) Dept., dated 02-02-1993 as well as the Memo No.618/Service-A/78-11 GAD dated 17-12-1979 or as per the earlier resolution of the Board of Directors, whichever is beneficial. Accordingly, the wife of the deceased employee Smt. Meerabai, being the first legal heir, was paid an amount of Rs.47,724/- in lieu of compassionate appointment through a cheque bearing No.058473 dated 21-03-2000. In view of the same, nothing survives for adjudication and the writ petition has become infructuous.

The writ petition is accordingly dismissed as having become infructuous. No costs.
